Niners Garden Committee — Cari Hampton, Cheryl Von Bergen and Marilyn Ellwood — went on a shopping spree to select plants and flowers to add to our Niners

FIEWEGER

Garden.

On a rainy day with shovels, garden hoes and fertilizer, they spent the afternoon beautifying the garden. Be sure to “ooh and ahh” as you pass our garden on the No. 6 yellow tee box. Thanks for their hard work!

Seasoned Niner Jane Teunon by Cheryl Barnum

Ladies and Gentlemen fasten your seat belts, the Niners have a fun, loving and former stewardess in our group. Jane Teunon has been a well-traveled lady growing up and also with her career. She is the daughter of a retired naval officer and moved every two years. She attended Catawaba College, a very small college in North Carolina. Jane wanted to go to a small college so she could meet everyone and everyone she did. She met her husband, Ken, and they have been married for 54 years! Jane was a first grade teacher in Virginia. Then, thinking Ken would be drafted, she became a stewardess for United Airlines. Both Ken and Jane believe flying was a huge gift to them. They have two children, a daughter in Seattle and a son in Tualatin. They are also grandparents to one grandson. Their children grew up in Tualatin and Ken and Jane moved to Charbonneau in 2008. Jane joined the activities in Charbonneau by playing tennis and golf and becoming a member of the Niners. She has helped with the Pink Ball Tournament and chaired scrambles with Joyce Bowden for years. Jane also wrote the Niners article for the Villager for five years. One of her favorite activities is being a member of the Charbonnettes. Jane says the best part of the Niners is the support everyone gives each other. She has become best friends with so many of the Niners and says although her family lives back east, she and Ken will not leave Oregon. Jane feels Charbonneau is a magical place to live. So as Jane would say, thank you for being so welcoming and enjoy your day!

Speaking of Charbonnettes, practice has started for "Queens of Music" Tuesday, June 8. Joanna Sawyer gathered all the dancers and worked us out for a couple of hours! We will spend hours practicing each week for our first show Sept. 28. This year that we will give the performance to the Niners... first! It will be at the Niners End-of-the-Year Banquet. You are our best cheerleaders! Mary Jane Hunt we love your "wolf whistle!" And Julie Beaton is our captain "Enthusiasm Ignitor."
