Niner Mantra

Cathy stressed we are more than a Niner golf club. We welcome women of all levels of golf, have fundraisers and like to have fun and camaraderie. We have Niners from the beginning of when the club started to brand new members.

Strong Enough to Bend- The lyrics from the song were read and depict the qualities Niners like to hold to.

Potential By Law Amendments

The task force that was involved with creating the survey regarding proposed amendments to the Niner bylaws will share the results of the survey and their recommendations at the board and committee chair meeting on 4/5/24. If approved, these recommendations will be posted at the pro shop and online.

On 5/7/24 at the general meeting after the scramble, the membership will take a vote on whether or not to adopt any of the recommended amendments to the bylaws.

Committee Chair Introductions

The following committee chairs were present and shared what their committees were all about:

Eclectic- Sandy McCallister
Handicap-Marsha Herron
Scoring- Karen Siegel
Performance- JoAnna Sawyer
Wilsonville High School Girls Golf- Karen Siegel
Scrambles- Leesa Gango

Housekeeping

Everyone is encouraged to sign up for a committee

Niner handbooks were available at the meeting and are also available online.

Niner Badges- Recommended everyone have a badge. Order forms were available and are also online.

Rules- Laminated cards for your golf bag were available. Some changes were made from last year.

April 26th Event- This is a joint event with CWGA. Guest speaker will be Coach Mary Jo McCloskey; an accomplished golfer and author. She will share life lessons she's learned thru golf.

Pace of Play

A humorous video made by Niners was shown. It showed how pace of play can be slowed down and ended with tips on how to make sure pace of play is kept up.

Thank You

Lindy thanked all her committee members for the preparations and set up for today's event.
